

STEVEN FRISBEE Manager of Facilities and Administration

After graduating from Maryville University with a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration, Steven joined Walton Construction as a contract administrator. His contractual expertise and management ability earned him the position of manager of facilities and administration. Steven oversees Walton St. Louis's administrative staff and helps with recruiting, hiring, benefits administration, employee relations, diversity initiatives, staff development, training and community outreach.

